

Confused?

Contributed by Sardonica
Sunday, 07 September 2008
Last Updated Sunday, 07 September 2008

Confused?

In case you were trying to find RSM (Rabid Space Monkeys) of Baelgun, the guild has decided to uproot itself from Baelgun and transfer back to the homeland of Medivh. We've changed our name from RSM to Crimson Guard of Medivh. A name that we've held on to since WoW was released back in 2004. At the moment, we're preparing for the expansion, The Wrath of the Lich King, by collecting mats, gearing up toons, and getting our minds back in raid-mode. We've already had many transfer back to Medivh, and hope our good friends from Baelgun would also consider transferring. If not, we wish you all well in your endeavors in Azeroth, Outlands, and beyond.

Feel free to check back often, we will be renovating our site to reflect what's going on presently with the members.